

WEDDINGS
AT CHARTERHOUSE

Welcome to your Wedding Venue

Set within 250 acres, and built in the 19th century, Charterhouse is located just outside the beautiful town of Godalming, Surrey. Throughout the grounds you will be surrounded by manicured lawns, colourful gardens, and a variety of architectural designs reflecting on the history of Charterhouse. Wherever you look, Charterhouse is flowing with elegance and character allowing you the opportunity to host a truly unique wedding.

Our attentive Event Coordinators are here to craft your wedding from day one. From your initial enquiry to your wedding day, we offer guidance and support making sure everything is planned to the smallest detail and nothing is missed. As an added benefit we can also work alongside your chosen suppliers, such as florists and musicians, ensuring every detail is considered.

Civil Marriage & Partnership Ceremonies

We know that weddings can become expensive very quickly so our aim is to help make your wedding a memorable and joyous occasion, with all the added little touches that help to create a lavish effect without making any sacrifices.

By having your ceremony at Charterhouse you will experience the personal touch when it comes to saying 'I Do' without compromising on finding that special location or being confined to a generic Registrars Office.

Each one of our three locations is different in style and size, and provides you with a variety of options for your ceremony. Whether you are wanting a small, intimate service for up to 40 guests or a larger location to accommodate up to 350 friends and family on your wedding day, we are able to help.

For those who are moving to another location after the ceremony, we allow you up to 60 minutes following the service to take photos in our magnificent grounds, giving you time to take in the occasion before moving on to enjoy the rest of your day.

South African Cloister

Surrounded by beautiful lawns, seasonal flower displays and a rose garden, South African Cloister really provides that idyllic setting for a once in a lifetime ceremony.

Inside you will find beautiful carved columns and archways while stone benches run down the length of the main walkway providing neatly positioned areas to add those decorative touches while natural light pours through from the traditional Victorian Gothic windows.

Outside each entrance there are garden areas providing extra space for capturing those precious photographic moments with loved ones and friends.

Charterhouse Hall

This wood-panelled room, hung with oil portraits beneath a vaulted ceiling, creates a warm and traditional feel in our largest wedding venue. On the south side the tall period windows allow in the warm sunshine to add to the ambience of this unique location.

The stage area at the top of Charterhouse Hall provides the ideal elevated platform for the happy couple to welcome friends and family or simply to take in their special day. You are welcome to use our grand piano which is housed on the stage if you wish to have a pianist* play before or after.
